Excerpt: . . . Note: The WTC Federal Responder Screening Program serves current federal employees who responded to the WTC attack in an official capacity. In February 2006, ASPR and NIOSH reached an agreement to have former federal employees screened by the NY NJ WTC Consortium. a In December 2006 the Office of Public Health and Emergency Preparedness became ASPR. We refer to that office as ASPR throughout this figure, regardless of the time period being discussed. b In providing referrals for specialty diagnostic services, FOH schedules and pays for the diagnostic services. c After HHS placed the program on hold, FOH completed examinations that had already been scheduled. Second, the programs provision of specialty diagnostic services has also been intermittent. After initial screening examinations, responders often need further diagnostic services by ear, nose, and throat doctors; cardiologists; and pulmonologists; and FOH had been referring responders to these specialists and paying for the services. However, the program stopped scheduling and paying for these specialty diagnostic services in April 2006 because the programs contract with...
