

Launch Out

By Philip R. Harris

Infinity Publishing.com. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 506 pages. Dimensions: 8.3in. x 5.4in. x 1.2in. LAUNCH OUT is a futuristic, science-based novel about space enterprise, lunar industrialization, and settlement. This mind-expanding volume of 305 pages centers on leadership from private developers of an industrial park, observatory, and colony on the Moon by year 2010. Its sixteen chapters and ten illustrations focus on such efforts by two high tech companies, one based in La Jolla, California, and the other in Kyoto, Japan. Inspired by their dynamic and visionary CEOs, R. J. Delahunt of Pacific Interplanetary Enterprises and Kazuo Yamamoto of Nippon Interplanetary Services, an international consortium, the Global Space Trust, is formed to sponsor this high frontier venture. Dedicated to the seven heroic crew members of shuttle orbiters, Challenger and Columbia, the book focuses on synergistic planning and actions to return humans permanently to the Moon in this 21st Century. The premise is that if taxpayers are to get return on investment from Apollo mission expenditures some thirty years ago, strategic alliances must be formed not only between the private and public sectors, but also among world corporations, universities, and research institutes. The story covers two decades of activities by space entrepreneurs...
