US Health and Human Services (HHS), Pandemic and All-Hazards Preparedness Act (PAHPA), 2006 - According to the PAHPA, the term at-risk individuals means children, pregnant women, senior citizens and other individuals who have special needs in the event of a public health emergency, as determined by the Secretary. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC), 2004 - The CDC suggests that many health departments use a similar definition: groups whose needs are not fully addressed by traditional service providers or who feel they cannot comfortably or safely access and use the standard resources offered in disaster preparedness, relief, and recovery. They include, but are not limited to, those who are physically or mentally disabled (blind, deaf, hard-of-hearing, cognitive disorders, mobility limitations), limited or non-English speaking, geographically or culturally isolated, medically or chemically dependent, homeless, frail elderly, and children. When developing the parameters of the term special needs in your commu-nity, consider the following information: People with disabilities are an important and significant part of the overall population. According to the 2000 uS census, there are close to 50 million people with disabilities, which is approximately 17 percent of the total 6 population in the united States. it is estimated that, of the 50 million who have identified themselves as having a...
